Princess Contest Judging Criteria

BIO:

Provide a Bio of yourself, telling us a little about yourself. Things like where you go to school, your hobbies, pets, family etc.

Reflection Essay:

This is a very big part of the point system. The essay should reflect the contestant desire to be princess, her pride in and knowledge of her tribe.

- Ⓢ Must be in the contestant's own thoughts, wording and feelings. If written by parent/ guardian or sponsor...we need to know why i.e. – child is too young or has a disability. We are very understanding and this will not affect the points at all. Should you chose not to turn in an essay at all you will not receive points for this part.

Traditional Dress: - This is a MUST!!!

- Ⓢ Dress
- Ⓢ White Apron

Dress Includes & points will be added or deducted for having or not having the items below.

- Ⓢ Beaded Choctaw Necklace
- Ⓢ Beaded Hair Comb
- Ⓢ Moccasins
- Ⓢ Ribbons
- Ⓢ White Scarf worn in traditional manor.

Each dress item will be given separate points so even if you do not have everything, you can still run. If you need help finding items let us know and we will be glad to help. Dress Ruffle MUST be the SAME color as dress, NOT white if you are ordering your dress from an outside source, you MUST request this to make sure. This white ruffle is NOT traditional and may count AGAINST you for dress points.

If you need a dress, please contact us for assistance if finding a dress or person to make your dress.

Talent:

This can be singing, musical instrument, poetry, beading (bring examples of your work), cheerleading, dance etc. Anything you feel you can do well...such as these the talent doesn't have to be traditional. However, Pow Wow Dancing not preferred.

Interview with the Judges:

The judges will be looking for knowledge & history of tribe and traditions; traditional clothes & why we wear them; poise; talent; self-confidence and desire. The judges will include as part of their scoring, their observations of you during the gathering, to include your participation in and interest in Gathering events such as dancing, classes, games as well as your attitude during the day.

This is in NO way a beauty contest so do not feel shy. Your beauty is in your desire to learn and carry the traditions of the tribe.

Photo(s):

Dance:

Participation in the traditional dances at the gathering are not required however are observed by judges. Participation shows incentive. As well as participation in the Lord's Prayer ceremony (if you do not know how we will show you or give you a CD on how to).

Ticket Sales:

These will be pre-determined by what you sell on a point per amount basis ~ please see point sheet for more info. *This may be subject to change. You should sell a minimum of 150.

Tie Breaker Essay:

This will be a written essay on "What I would like to say to my peers" or "What I would like to say to my elders" concerning being Choctaw or My Goals while reigning as Princess. This essay may also be used for other reasons such as acceptance speech or in announcements or publications.
